THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY. JAN. 23, 1907.

The third-term craze has been revised, and Mr. Roosevelt is silent.

And now Mr. Rockefeller has to take his hat off to that lumber king who is richer than he.

Fairbanks seems to have been frozen out, but why should an icicle object to the freezing process?

The tariff seems to be lost sight of in this day of political turmoil and yet it'n't it often all one most merciless and exacting task master?

President Roosevelt will visit the Jamestown Exposition once on the opening day and then again on the George day, and he should be excused from further attendance.

With 50,000 negro voters in Pennsylvania we may look out for a "problem." Come south and learn how to solve it. It is the one way and you need'nt hunt for another.

We were looking in the full blaze of a well nigh May sunshine on the 14th ulto when the report from Montana was to the effect that the thermometer was 18 below zero. Great is our country.

One of our church papers recently made the statement that some of the preachers of a certain denomination in Virginia were actually in want. It was surprising news to us and we would suggest that their names and addresses be given, and we feel assured that they will be cared for at once.

Champ Clark seems to be a little more Democrat than Mr. Williams, of Mississippi, and that of itself entitles him to leadership as in other respects his fitness is not questioned "Follow your leader and fear no danger" is a good motto for the Democrats of Congress and of the country at large. There is victory ahead of us if we simply "keep our heads."

Governor Glenn of North Carolina is growing on us every day. We could'nt agree with him when at Appomattox he so ably defended the position of his State, as "first at Bethel, further at Gettysburg and last at Appomattox," but next to our own Daniel he is our choice for the Presidency from the south And why not from the south? Are we to raise cotton, pay taxes and have no other interest in the Government?

We hope it is'nt true that the widow of Stonewall Jackson has been reduced to the necessity of asking or of even accepting a pension from the General Government. North Carolina and Virginia to the rescue, and see to it that this gentlelady, widow of our immortal, shall want for no earthly good. She should have as many homes offered her in this our southland as there were once swords ready to be drawn from their scabbards at the command of her illustrious husband.

We opposed the appointment of Mr. Kennedy as librarian of the State for the one good and sufficient reason that we could not believe that Virginia had gotten so poor of stock, or that it was necessary to import a man for the position, and we are not surprised that not being of us he has preferred to spend our money in New York rather than in Richmond. Mr. Kennedy should lose no time in sending in his resignation if reports true.

Making the James river navigable from Richmond to Lynchburg is one of the many practical and sensible suggestions of the Richmond Evening Journal. And while this good work is going on why not make all the public roads leading to the river banks from north to south as passable in mid-winter as they are in mid-summer? These things can be done and should be done. Wake up Congressmen, and make some return for the pay you are receiving.

Gold as a circulating medium is a dead failure, and for the good reason that it just wont circulate. Give your wife a $20 gold piece as she goes to market and you will go without dinner, give her two twenties for the purchase of a new cloak and she will wear the old one The "yellow metal" is a dastardly coward. It never fought a battle nor won a victory. The moneyed transactions of business circles are done with notes, checks and drafts.

J. J. Hill was right when he said, each to the dogs, "give me credit." Confidence between man and man is currency elastic enough and good enough so long as it lasts. A panic is simple want of confidence. Let the people keep their heads and there would never be another panic in the tide of time.

The man who goes to the next legislature should go there pledged to make the Jim Crow law embrace in its sweep all passenger depots as well as all moving cars. Let there be no exceptions, and no foolishness in the matter.

How to Avoid Pneumonia

We have never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop of Agawam Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

A New York waiter is reported to have retired with a "small fortune." He should have put it of another year, and retired with a large one.

Bad Stomach Trouble Cured.

Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach trouble, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tadlets. They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach trouble.
